15.20.010 Purpose.

The structure moving ordinance has been designed to encourage the safe, orderly movement of structures through the city. This being accomplished while keeping in mind possible adverse effects this may have on the residents of the city. (Ord. 121 (preamble), 1997)

15.20.020 Permit and insurance.

A. No person, partnership, corporation, firm or association shall move a house or structure for human dwelling or part thereof into, out of, within, or through the city without first obtaining a house mover's permit for each move. An application shall be made to the city building inspector who shall also require property damage and personal liability insurance in the amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) property damage and one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) to three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000.00) personal liability. Upon presentation of such application and policy or policies the city building inspector shall examine the qualifications and equipment of the applicant to ensure compliance with all applicable safety regulations.

B. The operation or movement of a vehicle, combination of vehicle, load, object or other things shall not be more than twenty-four (24) feet wide, twenty (20) feet high, overall length of forty (40) feet, or weigh more than forty (40) tons.

C. Movement of any house, building or structures shall be under the supervision of the building inspector who may demand any precaution deemed advisable for the protection of the streets. No house building or structure shall be moved which shall necessitate an extensive deprivation to the citizens of the city of any public service. The mover with his/her permit in hand shall make his/her own arrangement with all public utilities, fire department, and police department. (Ord. 121 (part), 1997: prior code § 10.07.010)

15.20.030 Administrative fees.

The administrative fee shall be fifty dollars ($50.00). (Ord. 121 (part), 1997: prior code § 10.07.020)

15.20.040 Damages and repairs.

The permittee is to immediately repair any damage to city or private property resulting from the moving of any structures. (Ord. 121 (part), 1997: prior code § 10.07.030)

15.20.050 Violation—Penalty.

Any person, firm, partnership, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) per occurrence. (Ord. 121 (part), 1997: prior code § 10.07.040)
